REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. I have before you Floor Amendment No. 2 to House Bill 2058. This is a bill that -- and a concept that's familiar to all of us in this Chamber, following September 11th. Last November, we unanimously adopted almost everything in this bill. The -- it was the Attorney General's antiterrorism package that went over to the House, and actually nobody opposed it in the House. There was one Present vote, I understand. And as you all know, that met with the Governor's veto. The Governor made five amendatory changes to that bill. This is not an override; this is a new bill. Four of those changes or recommendations of the Governor are included in this bill, and one is not included. Let me just walk through those four changes that I'm recommending to you and we can discuss all of them, and I'll do my best to answer any questions. The first is, in terms of the forfeiture language, you'll recall that there was a seizure/forfeiture action that was allowed in that underlying bill that Senator Hawkinson had, and this would put a time limit on that so it has to be commenced within sixty days of the initiation of the underlying civil freeze order. The -- the -- that time frame, in my view, makes sense. The other change is minor. It requires that in terms of the changes in wiretaps and eavesdropping that we all supported last November, the Governor recommended that we include language that would limit the overhearing to an electronic criminal surveillance officer. Again, I think that's a good suggestion, and it makes sense. Third area has to do with the doctor-patient privilege, and what we've done is made it an express exception relating to a terrorism investigation so that there's no ambiguity about the relationships in that -- or, the -- the -- the privilege in that relationship. And then, finally, under the FOID Card Act, what we're doing is we're saying that a non-immigrant applicant for a FOID Card has an obligation to disclose that under the card. Obviously, the

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

portion that the Governor recommended that is not a part of this bill is the elimination of the death penalty provision for terrorism. The death penalty provision is in this bill. So, my -- my sense is that several of the Governor's recommendations, in my view, were meritorious, and I would urge their adoption. I'll do my best to answer any questions.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any discussion? Senator Obama.

SENATOR OBAMA:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Will the sponsor yield for questions?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Sponsor indicates he will yield. Senator Obama.

SENATOR OBAMA:

Senator Roskam, we discussed this a little bit in committee, so I just want to make sure that everybody is clear. I thought you gave a -- a fair presentation just now, but I want to underscore -- what I understand to be happening and maybe you can confirm my understanding. The Governor took the bill that we had passed previously out of this Chamber, out of the House. It went to his desk. He amendatorily vetoed it, and he made a number of changes, all of which have -- are -- are reflected in this bill with the exception of the death penalty. Is that accurate?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Roskam.

SENATOR ROSKAM:

Yes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Obama.

SENATOR OBAMA:

So, essentially, we are confronted with a couple of options. One would be if the House released the version that they have

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

received back from the Governor and put it to an override vote, and if that was successful and it came over here, then we would be voting to override the Governor's bill. That's option number one. Option number two would be the override would fail, in which case the Governor's version would be adopted. Option number three, then, is for us to vote on this bill, which will then get sent over to the House and sent to the Governor's desk, presumably reflecting the changes with the exception of the death penalty. Is that an accurate...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Roskam.

SENATOR ROSKAM:

Yes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Obama.

SENATOR OBAMA:

So, I'll -- I'll just make a very brief comment. When -- when we had the debate in the previous bill, I think all of us overwhelmingly were supportive of the notion that we need to empower our local law enforcement officials to at least supplement what the federal government's doing in terms of fighting terrorism. And although the bill is not ideal, I think Senator Hawkinson, working with Members from both sides of the aisle, helped to craft a piece of legislation that many of us could support. I stated at that time that the difficulty I had with the bill continued to be the death penalty, not because I thought that someone like Osama bin Laden might not be an appropriate candidate for the death penalty, but because, as the Governor stated in his Budget Address, there are many of us who still have concerns about implementation of the death penalty. And so I -- I am sorry that, once again, those of us who are supportive of the underlying legislation are being put in a position where, essentially, they

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

have to either vote for a death penalty provision at a time that we support the moratorium or, alternatively, be perceived as being opposed to terrorism legislation that we actually support. And I -- I think it's unfortunate that we continue to construct what I consider to be political gamesmanship around an issue of this importance. That isn't to say that I think there can't be legitimate differences both on the death penalty and on the moratorium. I just think that if we're going to debate those issues, we should do so forthrightly and do them separately, rather than folding them into a bill that many people are going to find, politically, difficult to reject.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Further discussion? Senator Geo-Karis.

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I have supported the death penalty for heinous crimes, and madmen and murderers who attack planes with innocent women and children on them, like the terrorists did, unlike the Japanese kamikaze who would hit military installations and ships, would seem to me that it's not a political matter anymore. Whether we like it or not, we are engaged in war. It was done to us September the 11th and done in a very obvious and overt fashion. I certainly feel that the death penalty would be justified for terrorists who inflict murder and mayhem on our people, and I don't see why there's such a political ramification to it. Is it political to want to have justice for the people who lost their lives in the Pentagon, in the World Trade, in the plane that went down in Pennsylvania? Is that political? I don't think it's political at all. I think it's a matter of common sense and justice, and I urge the favorable approval of this bill.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Further discussion? Senator Cullerton.

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. I would rise in support of the -- the bill because the provisions in the bill that are in addition to the terrorist bill that we passed are improvements. So the Governor should be complimented for pointing that out in his amendatory veto, and we are doing the right thing by accepting those. Now, with regard to the -- the death penalty provision in the bill, I really think it's more symbolic than anything else. It's really hard to imagine a set of circumstances, a crime, covered by this Terrorist Act that's not already covered by the death penalty. We've got twenty provisions in the bill right -- in the law right now that allows for the death penalty, and just about any set of facts you can think of that would be a terrorist act is already covered by the death penalty. So, you know, you may not agree with the Governor's position but he's the Governor, and he's got to sign the bill before it becomes law. So what we're -- we're doing here is passing a bill which he clearly is going to have an issue with because it's got the death penalty in it. We might be, once again, confronting an amendatory veto and not having a bill with an immediate effective date, as this bill contains. So, probably the better course would have been to accept his amendatory veto, declare victory, announce to the world that the death penalty would apply to just about any terrorist act that you could imagine, and -- and we'd have a law. So, the tactic that you're taking I don't think is probably the best one, in light of the Governor's position, but for us, right now, we clearly should support this bill because it's an improvement over the terrorist bill that we passed last year.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Any further discussion? Senator Roskam, you wish to close on the amendment? Senator Roskam.

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

SENATOR ROSKAM:

Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, this bill is not about the Governor. This bill is about Osama bin Laden and the men who are manipulating and making things happen, and scurrying around behind closed doors, and mocking us and sending people to their death. That's what this bill is about. This bill is in place to take away any ambiguity about what the terrorist law should state. There are those who have said, "Well, it's duplicative and there's no need for it." Then so be it. Then vote Yes. But if there is any ambiguity in the law, if there is any possibility that there could be a heinous terrorist act that would take place in the State of Illinois and it would fall through the cracks, I think it would be irresponsible, on our part, not to enact this and to put it into place. So we've -- we've discussed this at length. Everybody's well familiar with what's in the bill, and I would urge an Aye vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Ladies and Gentlemen, this is a vote on the amendment. So, all those in favor, say Aye. Opposed, Nay. The Ayes have... Senator Demuzio, what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Has anyone requested a -- a roll call with respect to this, rather than just on the adoption?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

No. No, this -- there has been no roll call requested of the Chair. All those in favor, say Aye. Opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it, and the amendment is adopted. Any further Floor amendments approved for consideration?

SECRETARY HARRY:

House Bill 2058.

3rd Reading of the bill.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Roskam.

SENATOR ROSKAM:

Thank you, Mr. President. The bill -- Amendment No. 2 became the bill. Please vote Aye.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any discussion? If not, the question is, shall House Bill -- Senator Emil Jones.

SENATOR E. JONES:

Yes. Thank you, Mr. President. There are many provisions within this bill which I wholeheartedly support, but there is one provision in here which I -- I dislike, and it sort of places the Members in a -- in a situation where if you vote against the bill, then you are against the terrorists and all the parts of this bill that would deal with that issue. But we should not be playing politics with this, nor should we be playing politics with the lives of people who may inadvertently be placed on death row and -- and -- only later to find out that those persons are innocent. And I listened very carefully at the address of the Governor when he spoke on this issue, and he said, as long as he's Governor, he does not want to be placed in a position wherein some innocent person would -- would be put to death. And I know many Members on this side stood up and applaud, but Members on your side of the aisle sat there in silence, as if you do not care whether or not a innocent person is put to death. And that is frightening. It is frightening. Sure, we're concerned about 9/11. Sure, we are

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

concerned about the terrorists. But by the same token, when you add another category as far as the death penalty is concerned, when our criminal justice system is broke, when the commission appointed by the Governor has not even reported back, but you want to increase the category. That's the problem with the bill, in itself. But when you play politics with the lives of perhaps innocent persons, you're not really doing justice - 'cause I watched you sit there in silence. I would have assumed that you would have stood up and said, "Yes, we do not want any innocent persons placed on death row or even executed." So, we shouldn't be sitting around here talking about the terrorists, Osama bin Laden and all this other stuff 'cause if you vote against the bill, it is against Osama bin Laden. No, that's not the case. It's a case in the State of Illinois where you have so many innocent persons who have been found not guilty, many who have served many years in prison. There is no way you can compensate those individuals. Death is final. But I'm shocked - I am shocked - to hear you sit up here and play politics with the lives of people. It should not be that way. A lot of innocent people, sure, died in the World Trade Center, and I grant you that. A lot of provisions in this bill which many Members are -- are for. The death penalty should been -- should have been debated separately, not inclusive within this bill. That's the politics that's being played. But I'm very shocked - I'm shocked - that you would do such. I am -- I'm shocked that you did not stand up and say, "Yes, we do not want innocent persons placed on death row without all the safeguards to protect them." You want to add another category. I intend to vote No.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Further discussion? Senator Burzynski.

SENATOR BURZYNSKI:

Thank you, Mr. President. I move the previous question.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

There are three additional speakers. Further discussion?
Senator O'Malley.

SENATOR O'MALLEY:

Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of this initiative and I want to compliment Senator Roskam for carrying it and explaining it so well to the Body, and I support it wholeheartedly. And I have to agree with you - what kind of a message are we sending in the State of Illinois if we do not include the death penalty as something that's available to a judge and a jury to consider in cases where there'd be terrorism and the killing of innocent human beings around this State? And with all due respect to the previous speaker, I'm sure he did not understand what he was saying when he said the following, more or less, and I'm paraphrasing: that other people on the other side of the aisle, in any way, shape or form, somehow would be associated with wanting to see an innocent person put to death on death row. There's nobody on this side of the aisle -- I haven't -- I don't have any right to speak for anybody here, but I don't know any citizen in this State who would want to put an innocent person to death on death row, and I want to make that perfectly clear. And I -- and I hope the previous speaker will accept the fact that I have made these remarks to make sure that his remarks were clear and the positions of the Members on this side of the aisle are absolutely clear.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Further discussion? Senator Hawkinson.

SENATOR HAWKINSON:

Thank you, Mr. President. I want to also address that point. There is absolutely no logical inconsistency between support for the moratorium and the improvements that we're all trying to make in our death penalty system and support for this bill. This bill

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

adds a category that is death-penalty eligible, and if there's any category that ought to be death-penalty eligible, this is it. When terrorists kill innocent civilians, they ought to be death-penalty eligible. Nothing in that position is inconsistent with either support for the moratorium or support for improving our capital justice system. We in this Body passed the Capital Litigation Trust Fund Act that provides the resources at the trial court level, for both defense and prosecution, which ensures or goes a long way to ensuring that those kinds of mistakes will never be repeated at the trial court level. There's money for investigators, defense counsels, testing experts and the like. We also have had Supreme Court rules -- decisions which provide the qualifications for defense counsel who handle these kinds of cases. So, we've gone a long way already to improving the system, and I'm sure, when the commission comes down with further recommendations, we will consider those recommendations as well. But there is no inconsistency between support for improving the system and for adding a very necessary category that when terrorists strike at innocent civilians, that that ought to be at least death-penalty eligible. And I urge your support for House Bill 2058.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Further discussion? Senator Petka.

SENATOR PETKA:

Thank you very much, Mr. President and Members of the Senate. I was very, very saddened, very troubled, by the marks {sic} of the Minority Leader. To believe that we are people without a conscience because we have a -- a disagreement, perhaps, with the -- the Governor's position on capital punishment, I think that the remarks that were made were -- to myself were very offensive - in fact, bordered on outrageous. The chief sponsor of this legislation and myself - he was a House Member and I was a Member

STATE OF ILLINOIS
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

71st Legislative Day

February 22, 2002

of the Senate - came forward and sponsored a bill that was actually opposed by law enforcement which provided that people who are on death row and others who had been convicted of certain evidence -- or, certain crimes where DNA evidence could possibly exonerate them, we sponsored the legislation that permitted them to have legal standing, even though they had long passed the time when they could challenge their convictions. We did it for a very simple reason. We believe that trials and the criminal process is a search for the truth and that DNA evidence permitted the truth to come free. Again, law enforcement community members were -- were opposed to this because they felt that there was too much expense, that there was -- this was going to be a waste of time. In our opinion, all those considerations were simply subservient to the most important thing, and that is, if individuals who are on death row or serving long prison sentences were, in fact, innocent, then they should be exonerated and taken off of death row or out of prison. We stand very strongly for the proposition of equal protection and equal justice. We stand very -- very, very strongly for the proposition that a person is presumed innocent until he's proven guilty. And I -- I just think that it -- it is a -- is a statement that deserves an apology, quite frankly. I have stood in the position on a dozen times where I had to make a decision about whether or not a person should face the capital punishment. I can tell you it was never taken lightly. It was something that was thought out carefully, but when I -- I became convinced that it was the proper thing to do, that the people of the State of Illinois demanded justice in those cases, it was the only thing to do. So, sir, I would hope that in the future you'd be more sensitive to our side of the aisle on those positions where we fought hard, very hard, to prove the innocence of people who had been wrongfully convicted. And I might add, parenthetically, almost all of those convictions occurred in Cook County.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Roskam, to close.

SENATOR ROSKAM:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. You know, there's really nothing shocking that's in this bill at all. It's material that was negotiated through dozens and dozens and dozens of meetings. There were -- we -- it received high praise from a procedural point of view and -- and people who were letting -- willing to let, sort of, donkeys and elephants wilt away on this one and come together and do a good job and negotiate a good bill. Both sides of the aisle were well engaged through this entire process. This was not a slam dunk by one party, by any stretch of the imagination. There's nothing shocking in this bill. In fact, it -- it's -- it's something that we all discussed back in November. We all unanimously agreed on every provision in this bill, with the exception of four improvements, as one of the previous speakers said. There's four new, good ideas in here that the Governor came up with. So there's nothing - absolutely nothing - shocking, nothing new, nothing unusual. What we need to do is to stand up, do the right thing, realize and recognize that we are a coequal branch of government and let's assert the equality that the Constitution has empowered us with, and I'm asking for your Aye vote. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

The question is, shall House Bill 2058 pass. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed will vote Aye. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 49 Ayes, 2 Nays, and 2 voting -- Present. And House Bill 2058, having received the required constitutional majority, is hereby declared passed.
